Emilie Miner is an associate who represents clients in complex commercial litigation matters. Prior to joining Hueston Hennigan, she clerked for the Hon. Kenneth K. Lee of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

During law school, Ms. Miner was a judicial extern for the Hon. Michael Y. Scudder of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit and served as comments editor for the Chicago Journal of International Law. She also worked as a research assistant and ran the school's Undergraduate Careers in Law mentorship program, in which she connected hundreds of aspiring law students with law student mentors. As an undergraduate, Ms. Miner interned in litigation consulting for Resolution Economics.

*Ms. Miner is not yet admitted to practice in California.
