

HUESTON HENNIGAN

Katharine J. Ross
Associate

213.788.4280
kross@hueston.com

Education

- University of Chicago Law School (J.D., 2021)
- University of Michigan (M.A., 2016, Latin)
- Northwestern University (B.A., 2014, Classics) departmental honors

Admissions

- New York
- California

Katharine J. Ross focuses her practice on commercial litigation. She has experience representing clients in a broad range of matters, including corporate restructurings, class actions, and insider trading.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Ross was an associate at Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP, where she represented clients in a variety of civil litigation and corporate restructuring matters.

While in law school, Ms. Ross served as co-president of the American Constitution Society and as articles editor for the Legal Forum. She also participated in the Exoneration Project Clinic.

Experience

Represented a global technology and services provider in class action lawsuits and Sixth Circuit appeals related to diesel-engine emissions technology.

Represented a telecommunications company as a third-party witness in an insider trading investigation by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Represented law professors as amici curiae in Sixth Circuit appeal involving Title IX claims by former student-athletes against the Ohio State University.

Represented a prominent financial institution and affiliates in a bankruptcy adversary proceeding arising out of the Bernie Madoff fraud.

Recognitions

- Most Promising Newcomer, The Recorder (finalist) (2025)
-

Insights

- Co-author, "SPAC Bankruptcies," Turnarounds & Workouts (June 2023)