Neil G. Anderson practices complex commercial litigation with an emphasis on intellectual property litigation. He has represented clients in intellectual property cases in federal district courts, at the Patent Trial and Appeal Board, and before the International Trade Commission. Mr. Anderson consistently implements creative, effective strategies that position his clients favorably.

During law school, Mr. Anderson was a managing editor of the Cornell Law Review and a Charles Evans Hughes Scholar. Mr. Anderson was also competitively selected to serve as an Honors Fellow, providing instruction and feedback to first-year students on legal research and writing assignments. In 2013, he externed for the Honorable Jean P. Rosenbluth of the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California.

As part of his undergraduate studies in chemistry, Mr. Anderson helped develop microfluidic tools to aid physicians in quantifying disease-indicating biomarkers. He also helped synthesize a series of RNA-binding compounds as a potential new method of treating HIV and bacterial infections.

Experience

Represented Medtronic in a nine-figure patent infringement lawsuit concerning medical device technology. The case resolved on the eve of trial.

Secured a favorable settlement for Amazon.com in a patent infringement lawsuit in the Eastern District of Texas alleging over a billion in damages for use of Amazon Robotics' technology in Amazon's fulfillment centers.

Obtained summary judgment of non-infringement in favor of Amazon.com against claims for patent infringement brought by serial patent litigant MasterObjects, Inc. (See "Amazon Beats Patent Claims After Alsup 'Misstated' Its Motion," Law360).

Obtained complete defense verdict for ClearOne Inc. in trial against Shure Incorporated involving design patent for beamforming microphone arrays that the jury found to be not infringed and invalid. (See "Jury Says Microphone Co. Shure's Patent Invalid After Trial," Law360).

Won a $25 million trial victory for Acorn Semi, LLC in a patent infringement case against Samsung relating to its semiconductor technology. (See "Samsung Hit With $25M Semiconductor IP Verdict In EDTX," Law360).

Won a motion for preliminary injunction for ClearOne Inc. in a patent infringement suit, enjoining a large, multinational competitor's manufacture, marketing, and sale of a competing, infringing product.

Represented biotech firm Sorrento Therapeutics as plaintiff in multiple litigations alleging a high profile business partner's scheme to "catch and kill" Sorrento's promising cancer drug, Cynviloq.

Secured a victory for BlackBerry Corp. and BlackBerry Ltd. in civil extortion and unfair competition claims leveled against it by MobileIron, forcing it to pay BlackBerry's legal fees and drop its lawsuit.

Obtained favorable settlement for a leading fitness technology company – including admissions of patent validity, intentional copying and an agreement to immediately cease using its patented leaderboard technology – after prevailing on an Alice challenge and virtually every other motion. (See "Peloton, Flywheel Settle Legal Disputes Over Fitness Bike Tech," Wall Street Journal; "Peloton, Flywheel Agree To End Patent Fight Over Bike Tech," Law360).

Represented Best Buy Stores and Amazon.com in the Eastern District of Texas in a patent suit involving multiple patents directed to "smart home" technology.
